

2. MĀORI USES OF NATIVE PLANTS

1.

Tree fuchsia flowers have bright blue pollen used for making

L_____

Its Maori name is

K_____

2.

H___ leaves were chewed to help cure diarrhoea.

Its Maori name is

K_____

3.

Charcoal made from the burnt wood of the kahikatea tree was used to make the

B_____ colour for

T_____s.

4.

For tummy aches, you can drink the boiled juice of papauma leaves. Another name for this plant is

B_____

5.

If you break a bone, you can use the light, strong wood of the

__T__ tree

to make a splint while it heals.

6.

If you get a burn, using the soft inner bark of the rimu tree as a

B_____

will stop it oozing.

7.

K_____ flowers are

Y_____.

Maori used the flowers to make clothes dye!

8.

The oil from N_____ leaves is toxic, but when rubbed on your skin it makes a good

I_____

R_____

9.

Harakeke (F____) has strong fibres that can be stripped and twisted into S_____.

This can be woven into clothes and mats.

